

Independent Studies

Recommended Curriculum List for Middle School/High School Students

Please note: The following curriculum recommendations are for those students who want to do all or most of their school work at home. WCA also has a Curriculum List for books used in our classes. These textbooks may be used at home, but they are more conducive to a classroom setting.

Math

Teaching Textbooks

Alpha Omega Lifepacs by Alpha Omega Publications

Saxon Math –Geometry with Dive CD (If you like continual review and want to prepare for college.)

Standard Deviants School Series (Math Supplement)

Glencoe Math –Has nice online supplements. (Find it at Amazon.com.)

English/Lit/Writing

English: Writing and Grammar by Bob Jones University Press

Easy Grammar Ultimate Series by Wanda Phillips

Easy Writing by Wanda Phillips

Wordsmith by Common Sense Press

Editor in Chief by The Critical Thinking Company

Literature Series by James P. Stobaugh

Literature Texts by Bob Jones University Press

Spelling and Vocabulary & Supplement

Spelling Power by Beverly L. Adams-Gordon

Apples: Daily Spelling Drills for Secondary Students by Schoolhouse Publishing

Apples: Daily Phonics Drills for Secondary Students

Wordly Wise by Educators Publishing Service (Vocabulary- Great for SAT Prep.)

Vocabulary from Classical Roots by Educators Publishing Service

100 Words Every High School Freshman Should Know by American Heritage Dict. Co.

Social Studies

(Any) Alpha Omega (Lifepacs or Switched on Schoolhouse)

(Any) History and Social Studies Text by Bob Jones University Press

Streams of Civilization by Christian Liberty Press

American Heritage Series (DVD) by David Barton

A History of US Series by Joy Hakim

Exploring Government by Ray Notgrass

Short Lessons in World History by Walch Publishing

Mystery of History by Bright Ideas Press (All encompassing/all grade levels)

Sonlight Curriculum (A Literature Approach – Any Grade)

Drive-Thru History Series (DVD) by Tyndale House

Science

(Any Upper) Exploring Creation Series by Apologia

Alpha Omega (Lifepacs or Switched on Schoolhouse)

Upper Sciences by Bob Jones University Press